

AJ Perez has been giving motivational talks, facilitating team buildings and organizing seminars and workshops to thousands of people for more than a decade now. He is acclaimed as one of the most “in demand” speakers in the Philippines today.

He has been invited all around the country giving talks to notable companies, schools and organizations which includes Jollibee, Mang Inasal, Goldilocks and government agencies like Department of Social Welfare and Development, Department of Agriculture and hundreds more of companies and government agencies.

AJ appeared in national TV and radio stations like ABS-CBN, DZMM TeleRadyo and GMA and was featured in various media outfits.

Currently, he is the chief of staff of the CEO and President of NCCC group of companies, the largest retail group in Mindanao and Palawan.

To know more about our speaker, let us watch this video...